

Irish Society for Archives
Cumann Cartlannaíochta Éireann

The Irish Society for Archives in association with the GAA Museum and Dublin City Archives invites you to

Hidden Pages of Irish Sports History

A seminar presenting new developments in Irish sports history and exploring the challenges & rewards of preserving and accessing sports-related archives

Date: 07 February 2017

Venue: GAA Museum, Cusack Stand, St. Joseph's Avenue (off Clonliffe Road). Dublin 3

Booking essential for this free seminar

<https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/hidden-pages-of-irish-sports-history-tickets-31351919435>

Doors open at 6pm: Seminar attendees welcome to view 'Ireland's Olympians' exhibition at GAA Museum

Seminar: 6.30pm-8.30 pm

Welcome by Dr. Ray Refause, Chair of the Irish Society for Archives

Seminar Chair: Professor Michael Cronin, Academic Director, Boston College, Dublin

Each paper to be approx 15 minutes

'Development of the Dublin City Sports Archive'

Ellen Murphy, Senior Archivist, Dublin City Library and Archives

'Taking Muscles Seriously: Ireland's Physical Culture Movement 1898 - 1939'

Conor Heffernan, PHD Candidate, University College Dublin

'The archives of sporting organisations in the context of UCD Archives' private paper collections'

Kate Manning, Principal Archivist, UCD Archives

'The Hurlers - Writing the History of the Making of a Modern Game'

Dr. Paul Rouse, Lecturer, University College Dublin

'The Accidental Archivist: An overview of the Badminton Museum of Ireland Project'

Dick O'Rafferty, Honorary Archivist, Badminton Museum

'The GAA Library and Archive: An Introduction'.

Mark Reynolds, GAA Museum Archivist

Followed by open discussion on Sports Archives in Ireland.

Tea, coffee and refreshments served.

Parking: <https://crokepark.ie/getting-here/parking-for-gaa-museum-tours>

Further information please contact Seminar Co-ordinator Ellen Murphy

cityarchives@dublincity.ie / 01 674 4848

Comhairle Cathrach
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City Council